MARITIME ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY
2027 Introductory Course in Underwater Archaeology

Would you like to dive with MAHS to conduct research on historic shipwrecks and help preserve our national maritime heritage? Then this course is for you.

The Maritime Archaeological and Historical Society (MAHS) is now accepting applications for its 39th annual Introductory Course in Underwater Archaeology starting Tuesday, January 19, 2027.

The course consists of nine evening classes (7:30 to 9:30 pm) on select Tuesday nights, plus a Final Review class. Classes will be conducted online by Zoom, so students need access to a computer to participate. The course is open to all interested persons whether certified scuba divers or not. Cost is $215 per person.

Upon successful completion of the course and final exam, any student who is a certified diver is eligible to register for the MAHS Field School where students participate in the investigation of an historic shipwreck or other underwater site. Thereafter, graduates are invited to participate in future MAHS projects.
